Feel No Guilt In Laughter

Feel no guilt in laughter, he'd know how much you care.

Feel no sorrow in a smile that he is not here to share.

You cannot grieve forever; he would not want you to.

He'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.

So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,

The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.

Let memories surround you, a word someone may say

Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour or a day,

That brings him back as clearly as though he were still here,

And fills you with the feeling that he is always near.

For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart

And he will live forever locked safely within your heart.

Dad

He never looked for praise,
He was never one to boast.
He just went on quietly working,
For those he loved the most.

His dreams were seldom spoken,
His wants were very few.
And most of the time his worries
Went unspoken, too.

He was always there... a firm foundation,
Through all our storms of life.
A sturdy hand to hold onto,
In times of stress and strife.

A true friend we could turn to,
When times were good or bad.
One of our greatest blessings,
That man whom we called Dad.

Thank You

John's family would like to thank you all for the many expressions of kindness, care, love and support you have shown them at this time, and for your presence here today.

*Don't worry about mourning me,
I was never easy to offend.
Feel free to share a story at my expense,
And we'll have a good laugh at the end.*
